

Strike End Now In Sight

Optimistic About
Communications;
Steel Wage Hike
Believed Coming

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (P) — President Philip Murray accused the steel industry today of attempting "to create strikes and disturbances" in the government-seized industry.

Murray said the industry is engaging in "the greatest campaign of advertising against the President of the United States and the government in the history of the country."

By The Associated Press

There appeared a mild note of optimism today as negotiators made new attempts to settle disputes involving thousands of striking communication workers.

At the same time, in the nation's top labor dispute, the government was believed preparing to grant Philip Murray's CIO steelworkers a wage hike. But how much and how soon was not disclosed by Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, boss of the government seized steel industry.

Peace talks in the strike of 16,000 CIO Communication Workers against the Western Electric company were to be resumed in New York. Although several major issues remained in dispute there appeared some progress in negotiations.

But there were no signs of early settlement of the 2-week old strike of 30,000 AFL Commercial Telegraphers Union workers against the Western Union Company. A federal mediator in Washington called top officials of both sides to their first meeting since the strike started on April 3.

Both strikes in the communications industry stemmed from wage disputes.

The 11-day strike by Western Electric installers in 43 states has made idle thousands of telephone workers who have refused to cross picket lines.

CWA officials in Portland, Ore., last night ordered a strike by telephone operators in Oregon.

Western Union picket action threatened to postpone last night's baseball game between St. Louis and Pittsburgh at Sportsman's Park, St. Louis. Union electricians who operate the lighting system at the park said they would respect the picket line. However, the picket line retained when Western Union supervisors, who were scheduled to operate Western Union facilities at the park, left at the request of St. Louis club officials.

The Wage Stabilization Board's proposal calls for a flat 17 1/2 cents an hour raise for the steel workers, plus about 8 1/2 cents in fringe benefits. The board also approved granting the union — that all workers must join the union.

The steel companies rejected the WSB's recommendations.

Hofheins Truck, New And Used Typewriters, Stolen In Kansas City

The truck of the Sedalia Typewriter Co., 506 South Ohio, was stolen Wednesday night from its parking place near the LaSalle hotel in Kansas City, according to report received from Charles J. Hofheins, owner.

The truck had a number of used and new typewriters in it, according to the report given the Kansas City police.

Mr. Hofheins left Sedalia Wednesday for Kansas City where he was to get some additional machines and enroute to Kansas City he made several stops, delivering new machines and picking up used ones. The exact number of typewriters in the truck cannot be determined until an inventory is taken.

Senate Can Show Its Attitude On Steel Grab Thru Fund Vote

WASHINGTON (P) — The Senate may be asked today to show its disapproval of President Truman's seizure of the steel industry by voting against use of certain funds to enforce the order.

A group of Republican senators yesterday sought to force a showdown on the question by offering an amendment to a deficiency appropriations bill barring use of any part of its $960,641,000 funds to enforce the order which put control of the steel industry under the secretary of commerce.

Actually, none of the money requested by the President in the bill was for that purpose. The measure carries some funds for the Commerce Department but only for its aviation and highway activities.

However, Minority Leader Bridges (R-NH), one of the sponsors of the amendment, described it as "a vehicle Congress could use to express its disapproval of the President's action."

Sen. Hill (D-Ala.), an Appropriations Committee member, told a reporter he was confident the amendment would be opposed strongly on the Democratic side.

Some Democrats said it was not relevant to the bill, which finances operation of various government agencies for the rest of the fiscal year ending June 30. Largest single item is 348 million dollars to cover the 10 per cent pay raise voted for federal workers by Congress last year.

The supplemental money bill technically was the pending business throughout yesterday's session but not votes were taken. Senators mostly talked about other things.

When the Senate does get down to business on the measure, there also will be a test on a practice some lawmakers have denounced for years—wiping out previous appropriations by financing the same projects through deficiency bills.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) plans to force this by offering an amendment to knock out 50 million dollars of a 69 1/2-million deficiency allotment for federal highway aid.

Last year Congress cut the allotment for federal road spending by 95 million dollars.

Douglas said the 69 1/2 million dollars carried in the deficiency bill "plus carryovers of 23 1/2 million, would restore 98 per cent of the reduction made by Congress for the current fiscal year," ending June 30.

Taft Says Solons Should Consider HST Impeachment

BOSTON (P) — Senator Taft said today congressmen should "consider" impeachment of President Truman for his seizure of the steel industry.

"I think the seizure of steel is a valid case for impeachment," he told a news conference. "It is valid for presentation to the House certainly."

The Ohio Republican said that he and three other senators are supporting a resolution directing a Senate committee study the President's legal rights in making the seizure.

Taft, starting out on a day-and-night speaking campaign through industrial Massachusetts, said he hopes to get a "fair number" of Massachusetts' 38 convention delegates.

Eva Peron Returns To Her Job Today

BUENOS AIRES (P) — Eva Peron, wife of Argentina's president, is ready to go back to work at her office at the labor ministry after seven months illness.

Announcement of her recovery was made at a ceremony at the labor ministry last night at which both President Peron and his wife spoke.

She became ill last September and underwent a major operation by a tumor and cancer specialist. Her first reappearance at a public function was Feb. 4.

The president's wife occupies no official position at the labor ministry but keeps in close contact with labor organizations and operates the Eva Peron Foundation which spends millions yearly in direct handouts to the poor and other relief projects.

Formerly With Sedalia Capital—

Stanley Andrews Is Slated To Head US Point-4 Program

WASHINGTON, April 17 (P) — Stanley Andrews, native of Missouri and former editor in Arkansas and Kansas, is slated to be next director of the Point Four program, a congressional source said today.

Andrews was associated with The Sedalia Capital in the early 1920's.

The source, who declined to be quoted by name, said Andrews' nomination probably will be sent by President Truman to the Senate in the near future.

Andrews, as a special consultant, has been assisting the state department with the program since the death of Henry C. Bennett, head of the technical administration, in a plane accident last December 22 in Iran.

For that work he has been on loan from his post of director of

State and County Taxes Must Be Paid To Get Car Licenses

Beginning Tuesday applicants for state license plates will be required to show a receipt received for paying state and county personal taxes before the state tags will be issued, according to Ben P. Robinson, head of the local motor vehicle license bureau. If no taxes are due, Mr. Robinson said, a statement from the county collector's office certifying that fact must be presented.

Miss Hazel Palmer, county collector, stated that statements will be available on April 21, and any unpaid taxes may be paid at any time in order to secure auto licenses.

Douglas Hits Hazard Pay For Non-Pilots

He Calls the Group 'Chairborne Pilots' At the Pentagon

WASHINGTON (P) — Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) let fly again today at the Pentagon's "chairborne pilots" and at extra "hazard pay" that is not allowed to the infantry.

The Senate preparedness subcommittee gave him two hours to vent his feelings, and he said he would need at least that long.

Defense Department officials denied vigorously at a public hearing yesterday that "chairborne pilots" collect extra hazard-pay allowances for joy riding aerial missions, as charged by Douglas in Senate speeches.

Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, top Air Force general, and Vice Adm. J.H. Cassady, deputy chief of naval air operations, both challenged Douglas' demands for a sharp cut in extra pay to airmen and men in the submarine and other services deemed extra hazardous.

Vandenberg told the subcommittee that the country's reserve of trained airmen already "is dangerously small." He predicted a cut would bring wholesale losses of skilled fliers which the country cannot afford. Cassady backed him up.

The hearings resulted from senate amendment of a bill proposing pay raises to the 3 1/2 million men in the armed forces. The Senate hooked onto it a provision giving a flat $45 a month extra "combat pay" to all naval, air and military personnel engaged in actual fighting in Korea.

The subcommittee promised these hearings to head off a move led by Douglas to cut deeply into the hazard-pay allowances, which now range from $30 a month for enlisted men to $210 for officers, according to rank and type of service.

The infantry is not eligible for hazard pay on top of its regular earnings, but would be the main beneficiary of the combat pay proposal.

Sen. Stennis (D-Miss), a subcommittee member, who has backed Douglas, cautioned Pentagon witnesses to "get ready for the people of the United States to cut down your funds—and that's not a threat."

Douglas told reporters he would propose a series of bills, "as framework on which to work," to cut bonus pay for flight and submarine duty to a flat $30 a month; hazard pay for parachute and glider personnel to a flat $50 a month; and eliminate all hazard pay allowances for service doctors.

The subcommittee planned to complete questioning of Comdr. A. C. Miller Jr., a Navy spokesman about overseas allowances in the half hour of its public hearing before Douglas opens up.

Bank Robbers Get $56,000 In Cash

LEAKSVILLE, N. C. (P) — Two men held up a branch of the Leaksville Bank and Trust Company today and escaped with about $56,000 in cash.

Police broadcast an alarm through North Carolina for the two men, both said to be white.

Ridgway Into Ike's Position, Paper Claims

S. F. Chronicle Says Recommendation Already Is Made

SAN FRANCISCO (P) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme Allied commander in the Far East, has been recommended by the Joint Chiefs of Staff in Washington to succeed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in Europe, the Chronicle said today in a copyrighted story from its Washington correspondent, Vance Johnson.

Johnson said that Ridgway's name had been suggested to the other 13 North Atlantic Treaty nations, and although approval is expected in the near future, the announcement of the selection might be delayed until after Gen. Eisenhower departs in June from his North Atlantic Treaty forces command.

Field Marshall Viscount Montgomery of Great Britain, Eisenhower's deputy commander, will assume the NATO command for the interval between Eisenhower's departure and Ridgway's arrival in Europe, the story said.

Present plans of the joint chiefs, Johnson said, call for the appointment of Gen. Mark W. Clark, chief of Army field forces, as Ridgway's successor in the Far East, and for Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, now chief of staff to Eisenhower in Europe, to replace Clark. Gruenther was Eisenhower's personal choice for the top NATO command.

But Gruenther Says He Has No Such News

WASHINGTON (P) — Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, deputy to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in Europe, said today he had not heard anything about a report that Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway is slated to take over Eisenhower's post.

Gruenther, who has himself been mentioned as a possible successor to the command of North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) forces, said with reference to the Ridgway report:

"If it is to be that way, I'm a soldier, and I will be delighted to do everything that the Army Department asks me to do."

Gruenther flew in from Paris today for a speaking tour which includes a Friday evening address to the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Reporters asked him on his arrival about a report the San Francisco Chronicle published from Washington, saying that Ridgway, supreme commander of the United Nations forces in the Far East, has been recommended by the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff for the European job Eisenhower is giving up June 1.

Russians Set Up City For Western Soldiers Who Desert to East

BERLIN (P) — The Russians have set up a community in the East Zone, city of Bautzen for Western soldiers who desert to the East, a British soldier said today.

Private Dennis Eggleston told reporters he lived in the community for weeks and saw American, British and French deserters who have settled down there with German wives and in some cases have several children.

The deserters live in small apartments given them by the mayor of Bautzen on Russian orders and have jobs and "stateless person" passports, he added.

Eggleston faces a court-martial on charges of desertion. He returned to West Berlin last night after four and a half years in the Soviet Zone. He told interrogators he left his post at Goslar in October, 1947 and slipped into the Russian Zone because he was "tired of army life." The Russians arrested him and held him in prison at Halle until last February, he said.

Million Jap Coal Miners Go On Strike

TOKYO, Friday (P) — Led by the powerful All-Japan Coal Miners Union, an estimated million Japanese workers began a one-day strike at midnight to protest a government bill to control subversive activities.

Labor leaders, who made the estimate, charged that the bill — designed to curtail Communist activities — could be used against labor unions.

A similar mass protest last Saturday fizzled when the 270,000-man coal miners' union withdrew from the strike at the last minute. Only about 300,000 workers observed that strike call.

The flames raged Tottori's downtown section, including police headquarters, the city's Red Cross hospital, the post and telegraph office, two newspapers and several department stores.

Police said the fire broke out at 3 p. m., Thursday in an overloaded electric wire in the heart of the city on southwest Honshu Island. It was quickly fanned into a roaring conflagration by a strong southerly wind which blew all day and evening.

Red Cross Needs Ten Millions for Floods

NEW YORK (P) — The Red Cross said today it needs a minimum of 10 million as an initial fund for disaster work in the Missouri and Mississippi River flood areas.

It said this sum was required over and above funds received in the national campaign conducted in March.

For Bar On Tass Newsmen

News Editors Want Russians Ruled Out From Congressional Press Galleries

WASHINGTON (P) — A renewed demand that representatives of Tass, the Soviet news agency, be barred from the congressional press galleries was heard today at the opening convention session of the American Society of Newspaper Editors (ASNE).

Reminding the society that Associated Press correspondent William Oatis remains imprisoned in Czechoslovakia, ASNE President Alexander F. Jones told 350 editors:

"Our State Department seems to consider that American citizens can only be protected by paying ransom or inflicting economic sanctions."

"I am not proud of our course in allowing our reporters in Iron Curtain countries to become harassed, frightened, unless representatives of our free press. We are taking it lying down."

First Call Last Fall

With assent of ASNE's board of directors, Jones last fall called on the standing committee of correspondents to bar Tass representatives from the congressional press galleries on grounds they were not "bonafide representatives of the press of their country." The standing committee declined, saying Tass membership was "consistent with the American concept of a free press."

Jones, who is editor of the Syracuse, N. Y. Herald-Journal, disclosed today some members of the ASNE board disagreed with him, but declared:

"Intolerant" Relations

"As certainly as I stand here, the present intolerant press relations between the U. S. and the nations behind the Iron Curtain cannot long continue — with our reporters in Moscow being held as virtual hostages and subjected to every indignity; William Oatis in prison in Czechoslovakia and Pavlov, the Soviet delegate at the Paris meeting of U. N. declaring that the next American correspondent arrested will consider Oatis fortunate to be only in prison."

This while Mikhail Fedorov, head of the Tass bureau here, an aeronautical engineer sent from Moscow to head a spy ring, uses a Russian government communications system without censorship.

Not a News Agency

"Tass is not a news agency as we know the term. Only last week, Tass was thrown out of India."

Jones proposed that ASNE establish a permanent secretariat in Washington, primarily to handle the society's increasing activities in behalf of freedom of information here and abroad.

Following the officers' reports, the society devoted its opening session to a discussion of "honesty in government" with talks by Adrian de Wind, Counsel for the House subcommittee investigating the Internal Revenue commission, and Arnold Bauman, counsel for the Senate subcommittee investigating crime in the District of Columbia.

Douglas for Kefauver As 'Best Available'

WASHINGTON (P) — Senator Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) today threw his support behind Estes Kefauver of Tennessee as "the best available candidate of our party" for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Douglas' announcement came just 24 hours after Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois declared he could not accept top place on the Democratic ticket. Douglas had been supporting Stevenson.

At a news conference, Douglas also repeated what he has said before — that he would not accept the party nomination for president.

Fire In Japan Burns 4,500 Homes Today And Is Still Burning

TOKYO, Friday (P) — A raging, wind-fanned fire destroyed at least 4,500 homes in Tottori, left 15,000 persons homeless and was still burning early today, Kyodo News Agency reported.

It was Japan's worst post-war fire. There were no deaths reported in the city of 60,000 but at least 140 persons were injured.

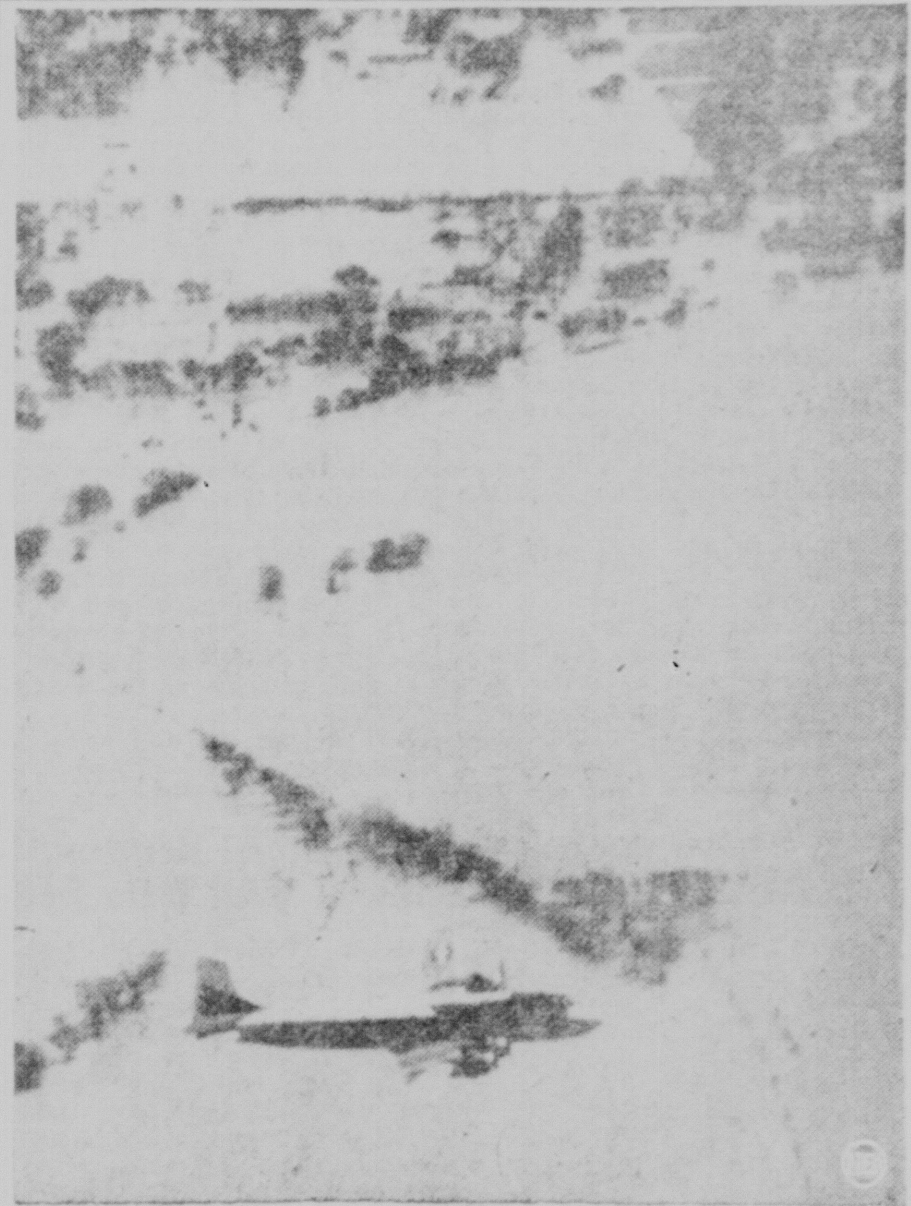

The flames raged Tottori's downtown section, including police headquarters, the city's Red Cross hospital, the post and telegraph office, two newspapers and several department stores.

Police said the fire broke out at 3 p. m., Thursday in an overloaded electric wire in the heart of the city on southwest Honshu Island. It was quickly fanned into a roaring conflagration by a strong southerly wind which blew all day and evening.

Expect River Will Smash All Levees From Rulo to K-City

KANSAS CITY (P) — The mighty Missouri river flood is expected to smash over every farm levee from Rulo, Neb., to Kansas City.

Army engineers said they didn't expect a single one of the levees to be standing after the crest reaches Kansas City Monday or Tuesday.

Farmers all along the valley have moved their livestock, machinery and household goods to higher grounds.

Valiant stands still are being made to bolster some dikes in a race against the swelling torrent.

Lose Fight at Craig

One of the races was lost last night when the big Tarkio levee northwest of Craig, Mo., broke and released the muddy torrent over 23,000 acres of land.

Downstream from Rulo, Neb., to Kansas City the river already has flooded 60,000 acres, army engineers said.

Principal cities along the river in Missouri still were in good shape.

St. Joseph, Mo., high on its bluff had only its fringes wet. Atchison, Kan., also up high, was worried mostly about surface water from possible rains because its main storm sewer already was plugged by the river's flood.

K. C.'s Levee to Hold

Engineers continued assuring Kansas Citizens their levees would safely stand the test, but the memory of last year's disaster drove Kansas City officials to careful planning against any eventuality.

Walkie-talkie radios flown here from Chicago were being used in conjunction with planes in an air and ground watch on the levees.

Business men in the Fairfax district of Kansas City, Kas., have organized crews for a quick fight against the river. Equipment is ready.

Another city determined not to be caught unprepared was Wathena, Kan., located on rising ground five miles from the river west of St. Joseph. Wathena residents worked all last night with bulldozers throwing up a levee 600 yards long to guard against possible backwater.

More Help to St. Joseph

More help is due to arrive in St. Joseph tonight. One thousand troops were ordered there from Camp Carson, Colo., and Camp Atterbury, Indiana.

At Atchison, Kan., the principal business streets, Commercial and Main, slope up from the river. The big storm sewer was backed full of flood water five blocks and business buildings were being sandbagged and caulked against possible surface water in that area.

The locomotive finished materials plant, which makes parts for diesel locomotives, is located near the river and the crest is expected to approach the plant. Workmen last night were flagging sandbag barriers around blast furnaces and other equipment.

Rolls Into Bean Lake

East of Atchison water started flowing over the Rock Island railroad embankment which protects thousands of acres and more than 100 homes in the Sugar Lake area. Rail traffic was halted on the line.

The Burlington levee, 2 1/2 miles south of Atchison on the job was $254,262.98.

No Layoff While Work Is In Progress—

New Furnace to Be Installed At P-C Foamglas Plant Here

Replacement of the glass melting furnace in the Foamglas plant of the Pittsburgh-Corning Corporation here in Sedalia is scheduled to begin April 21 with the draining of the present furnace.

It is expected that the draining will be completed in 24 to 36 hours and dismantling work will begin on April 24. Rebuilding will begin April 28 and will continue on a 24-hour-per-day basis until completed. The new furnace will be ready for operation early in June.

Changes in furnace design and

Missouri side, broke last night and water started pouring into Bean Lake.

At Leavenworth, Kan., soldiers and private contractors labored through the night with 85 trucks, bulldozers and power shovels to raise the dikes protecting Sherman Air Field. The dikes had a base 2-foot freeboard above the water and the men hoped to raise the barrier another 2 1/2 feet deep to keep ahead of the oncoming crest.

Another all-night job at Leavenworth was construction of a 5-foot levee at the Missouri Valley Shipyards for protection against backwater from Five Mile Creek.

Second Strike Today at S.A.F.B.

Carpenters' Union Joins Laborers In Picketing Base

Union carpenters at Sedalia Air Force Base, south of Knob Noster, went on strike Thursday over non-union carpenters being employed by G. W. L. Construction Co., Little Rock, Ark. This is the second strike against the contractors in two days, the laborers at the base having struck Wednesday.

The United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, Local Union 1953, Warrensburg has jurisdiction over the carpenters. Business Representative Glen Mullis, Warrensburg, said Thursday afternoon the strike was over non-union carpenters being employed on the job. There is no dispute over wages.

The laborers are members of the International Hod Carriers, Building and Common Labor Union of America, Local 1125 of AFL, Warrensburg. The labor strike was called by Business Representative Nobel Boyd over wages and working conditions.

Both unions have pickets stationed at the front gate of the S.A.F.B.

Thursday afternoon representatives of the Sedalia Building Trades Council & Affiliated Local Unions who have jurisdiction over the work at the S.A.F.B. are meeting at the Bothwell Hotel with the G. W. L. Contractors and their representatives in an endeavor to reach an agreement.

G.W.L. Construction Co. Low Bidder at Ft. Wood

KANSAS CITY, (P) — The G. W. L. Construction Company of Little Rock, Ark., was the apparent low bidder today for construction work at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

The firm bid $214,296.25 for the project, which includes nine classrooms nine supply rooms and five other rooms, including utilities and roads.

The government estimate on the job was $254,262.98.

During the building of the new furnace, additional equipment and facilities will be installed and all present production equipment will be overhauled and made ready for resumption of operations.

No general layoff of Foamglas employees is scheduled as it is planned to use all present employees in the dismantling, rebuilding and maintenance work.

2 Cities Awaiting Floods

Omaha, Council Bluffs Set for Big Onrush Expected In Those Areas Tonight

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (P) — The government today promised flood disaster areas that any needed scarce materials will be made available to them for rebuilding damaged homes, stores and factories.

Henry H. Fowler, chief of the National Production Authority, said any materials needed will be diverted from normal channels.

OMAHA, Neb. (P) — Levees strait-jacketing the Missouri river along Omaha and Council Bluffs, Ia., still held the upper hand today but the situation was touch and go.

River forecasters continued to predict a crest "sometime tonight" in this metropolitan area of 366,000 persons.

Round-the-clock and almost inch-by-inch vigilance was being maintained along the 23 miles of primary levees which so far have kept the waters from the two cities.

Sand boils developed but were quickly choked off as the tremendous pressure kept increasing. The water crept above the original flood wall height in spots to push against flashboards which have been erected in recent days. But pumps lifted the spilled water back into the channel.

The river level today passed the 29 1/2 foot mark. Flood stage is 19 feet. The previous record high, in 1881, was 24.6 feet. The crest is expected to measure 31 1/2 feet.

Meantime, the pattern of farmland flooding, evacuations and levee raising work which the river set earlier upstream was being repeated along reaches south almost to Kansas City

Harriman May Be Boomed As Dem. Nominee

NEW YORK (AP)—W. Averell Harriman, President Truman's foreign affairs troubleshooter, may be boomed as a Democratic presidential candidate.

Harriman, director of mutual security, will be honored tonight at a $100-a-plate dinner sponsored by the New York State Democratic Committee.

Coming at this time, the affair reflects strong support among the committee's membership to give Harriman the state's 94 votes at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago.

Tomorrow, the state's 62 Democratic county leaders meet here to discuss "the presidential situation"—full of more party question-marks since Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois renounced White House ambitions.

And a Democratic spokesman said yesterday that, if Harriman were named, he would be announced as a full-fledged candidate, not as a "favorite son."

The array of speakers and guests at tonight's dinner is practically a who's who in Democratic circles. Here are some:

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee; Sen. Brien McMahon of Connecticut; Vice President Alben W. Barkley; Stevenson; Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, and Sen. Herbert H. Lehman of New York.

Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia is the only prominent announced candidate not expected to attend.

Harriman, known to be highly regarded by President Truman, worked closely with the late President Roosevelt and attended international conferences with him.

Mr. Truman has publicly expressed no preference for a possible Democratic successor. But it is known that he liked Gov. Stevenson and that he has been lukewarm toward Sen. Kefauver.

Kefauver has been harrelling along in Democratic presidential primaries. Some observers think a "boom Harriman" offensive will have the effect of a "stop Kefauver" drive.

An organized campaign for Harriman started last Saturday at Harriman, N. Y. The Orange County town, about 90 miles north of New York, is named for his family.

The "Harriman - for - President" committee introduced their favorite in a cottage on the former Harriman estate, presented by the family to Columbia University.

The 60-year-old Harriman, still not an announced candidate, for the nomination, said he would "consider it an honor" to be endorsed by the New York State Democratic organization.

Edward Fitz Gerald, translator of Omar Khayyam, was born in March 1809.

Russell Has His First Full Slate Of Demo Delegates

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—Georgia Sen. Richard Russell has his first full slate of pledged delegates today, following the South Carolina State Democratic Convention.

The convention yesterday pledged South Carolina's 16 national convention votes to Russell "for as long as his name is in nomination."

A few blocks away, the GOP Convention turned down specific endorsement of either Gen. Eisenhower or Sen. Taft. The Republicans elected six uninstrusted delegates to the party's national convention.

Gov. James F. Byrnes urged the Russell endorsement in his keynote speech to the convention. The Democrats agreed to recess, rather than adjourn, and meet again after both national parties have named their presidential nominees. The States Rights maneuver leaves the door open for a split with the national party such as occurred in 1948, when J. Strom Thurmond, then governor, was the States Rights presidential candidate.

Two of the GOP delegates came out flatly for Taft, but the other four are officially uncommitted. One, however, privately indicated his preference for Taft and another said he "leans" towards Eisenhower. Convention turned down flatly a resolution terming Eisenhower "our best possibility for president."

Pave California Street for Queen

PARAMOUNT, Calif. (AP)—They're not going to roll out the red carpet for Queen Juliana of The Netherlands here Sunday. But they're paving a street for her to walk on.

The Queen and her consort, Prince Bernhard, are to worship in the $150,000 stucco and flagstone Emmanuel Reformed Church.

The Paramount Chamber of Commerce decreed that the street in front of the church wasn't up to the Dutch standard of neatness. So it got the county road department to pave the block.

Clergyman-Editor Hits 'Voice' for Not Using Graham, Sheen

CHICAGO (AP)—A clergyman-editor declared today that the Voice of America has refused to transmit radio addresses by evangelist Billy Graham and Mgr. Fulton J. Sheen, noted Catholic lecturer and author.

Dr. James DeForest Murch of Cincinnati, editor of United Evangelical Action magazine, told the convention of the National Association of Evangelicals that the government - sponsored overseas network has not given a well-rounded picture of American religious life.

"Information reaching me indicates that evangelist Billy Graham's messages have been ruled out by the program directors on the basis that his appeal for conversion to the Christian gospel is too strong," he said.

He said he believed Mgr. Sheen's addresses "have been rejected because of their 'too positive' in Christian philosophy and ethics."

Dr. Murch presented a resolution asking the convention to protest the religious policies of the Voice of America.

Capt. Burn Returns Home With Wife Jane

NEW YORK (AP)—Capt. John C. Burn, the airline pilot who twice escaped tragic air crashes, came home last night with his wife, singer Jane Froman.

All Burn had to say was that he was "just glad to be home."

He didn't want to talk about last week's crash of his plane into the ocean off Puerto Rico. Fifty-two persons were killed in the accident. Burn was one of 17 survivors.

Yank Fights to See Mother Before She's Deported to Holland

WITH 1st MARINE DIVISION, Korea (AP)—A fighting U.S. Marine is waging a losing battle to see his mother before she is deported from the United States.

Sgt. Johannes (Dutch) Meulen-kamp, a combat rifleman for 10 rugged months on this war-torn peninsula, has begged in vain that either his mother not be sent back to Holland immediately, or that he be allowed to see her before she goes.

"I owe everything to mother. I'd give anything if I could help her now—when she needs help," the tall, blue-eyed 22-year-old sergeant said.

Next month, or in June at the latest, Dutch will be rotated back to the States. But his mother, Mrs. Maria Cornala Louwerenburg, has been ordered by immigration authorities to leave the country by May 1. Her visa has expired.

She now lives in Mill Valley, Calif., near San Francisco.

British Stage Alert

LONDON (AP)—British troops in Southeast England went on a surprise alert early today to show potential invaders it's still a tight little island, and with no soft underbelly.

Cooks, clerks and everyone else in British Army uniform in the area moved to battle stations in an anti-invasion practice, which lasted through the early morning.

Sea Elephant Gets Plane Trip Because Doesn't Like Crates

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sir Anton, believed to be the only antarctic sea elephant in captivity, is finding out what humans have to endure in civilization.

Since he was captured in his native habitat and stowed on the Danish scientific ship Galathea, Sir Anton has been fighting one affliction of civilization after another. Penicillin cured him of pneumonia, a switch in diet and a jolt of castor oil corrected an attack of acute indigestion.

But nothing could fix his claustrophobia. He doesn't like crates; simply pines away in them. So the Copenhagen Zoo, to which he is consigned, decreed that he should desert ship and hop a plane for the Danish capital.

He's winging his way there today. With him is a veterinarian who has instructions to spray the 200-pound animal at regular intervals with water. The zoo doesn't want to risk losing its valuable prize. When fully grown (he's six months now) he'll weigh 8,000 pounds, and won't those Swedish zoos be envious!

Returns to Korean War

HONG KONG (AP)—British Pvt. William Speakman, 24, winner of the Victoria Cross, is going back to Korea at his own request after almost three months home leave and some 40 offers of marriage.

"I just want to go along with the boys," he said.

Speakman was awarded the Victoria Cross, Britain's highest military award for valor, for leading a grenade attack under heavy fire last April and holding some 600 Reds at bay.

Lets Beautify Our Home Town

By MRS. TOM YOUNT

Chairman Sedalia Garden Clubs
For many years it has been the ambition of the Sedalia Garden Clubs to beautify Sedalia, so that tourists passing through on our Highways "50" and "65" and that visitors coming to our city at State Fair time, will take away a vision of a city of lovely lawns with flowers and shrubs and beautifully landscaped parks.

Years ago the Garden Clubs took the weed-patch area, that lay between Barrett and State Fair Boulevard entrance on Sixteenth and made of it, the lovely landscape parkway it is today. Later the Garden Clubs, with the city's permission again took the weeded area from Speed to Limit on West Third, where the old street car track to the State Fair Grounds, had left a cinder bed, where even weeds had a hard time growing, and made of it the beautiful magnolia planted parkway, that in the last few days has been a thing of beauty and something for any city to be proud of. The Kansas City Star last year described Sedalia's beautiful magnolia trees as something worth the tourist to note.

Since then we have landscaped the area from Limit to State Fair Boulevard on West Third and planting more magnolia trees, as finances permit, we will continue on around State Fair Boulevard, as the past presidents of the Garden Clubs have planted the boulevard from Highway "50" to the State Fair entrance; thus making a complete horse-shoe drive from Third west at Liberty Park around the State Fair Boulevard to the entrance to the State Fair grounds, then up Sixteenth to Barrett. A drive that will eventually be a thing of beauty and something to be proud of.

It is not only our front yards that face the public that we wish well groomed and landscaped, but our private living areas in the rear of our homes, where by planting shrubs of our own taste, that we can make it so private and beautiful, that a meal or picnic can be enjoyed there. In selecting shrubs for this purpose for our homes, the Dogwood, the Red Bud, and Hawthorn, the Missouri State flower shrub, and all native of this state, make lovely planted specimen or for screen planting.

Many of us would not be without our old fashioned perennials borders of flowers, that each spring greet us at the end of winter, dependable and without a great deal of care; they grow and blossom and furnish the beautiful bouquets for our homes through the spring, summer and autumn.

Now that the city has a very efficient garbage collection system, there is no need for unsightly

716,000 GIs Are Released Since Korea

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Veterans Administration estimated today that 716,000 members of the armed services have returned to civilian life since the outbreak of the Korean War.

It noted, too, that "more and more veterans disabled since the beginning of the Korean conflict" are turning to the VA for medical care and other disability benefits.

At the end of February, 1952, VA said, there were in civilian life an overall total of 19,179,000 former servicemen.

These figures were cited for since-Korea veterans:

1. At the end of January, 2,075 were being treated in hospitals by the VA, an increase of nearly 200 over the Dec. 31 total of 1,879.

2. In addition, 2,042 sought services at VA outpatient clinics during February. This was the first compilation of such figures.

3. A total of 6,830 were drawing pension at the end of February, an increase of nearly 1,500 over the January figure of 5,331.

4. At the end of February 262 disabled since Korean War started were training at VA expense in schools, farms, or jobs, almost double the January total of 135.

5. By the end of February, dependents of 10,388 deceased veterans were drawing VA death compensation or pension, an increase of 666 over the January total of 9,722.

6. Approved death indemnity claims of up to $10,000 each had reached a total of 5,975 by the end of February, an increase of 654 over the January cumulative total of 5,321.

7. The estimated number of living veterans in civil life who had served in the armed forces since the Korean conflict started was 716,000 at the end of February, an increase of 61,000 over the January total of 655,000.

8. The estimated number of living veterans in civil life who had served in the armed forces since the Korean conflict started was 716,000 at the end of February, an increase of 61,000 over the January total of 655,000.

OBITUARIES DAILY RECORD

The Rev. Earl S. Brummett

The Rev. Earl S. Brummett, 68, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Sedalia, who resided at 1701 South Harrison, passed away at the Bothwell Hospital at 3:55 a. m. Thursday. He had been a patient there for the last two weeks.

Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Melvin Chambers, Marshall, at the Gillespie Funeral Home Saturday at 2:30 p. m.

Rev. Brummett was born on Aug. 4, 1884 at Warrensburg, the son of Thomas and Letta Brummett. He had one brother and one sister who preceded him in death.

He came to Sedalia at the age of 16 and was employed by the Sedalia Printing Co., for a number of years. He then took employment with the Botz Printing Co., June 1, 1936 and was employed there until Jan. 1, 1952, a period of 25 years.

Rev. Brummett had been an active worker in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church since 1913, when he became a member. Starting as a Sunday school teacher and superintendent, he became a candidate for the ministry in 1930, was licensed in 1932, and was ordained Sept. 10, 1935. He spent his entire ministerial career, 22 years, in the service of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

April 21, 1904 he was united in marriage to Jessie Hardin, who survives him with four children, two sons, Fred and Ed; two daughters, June, Mrs. Lee Parker, and Mary Helen, now Mrs. John Swisher, and five grandchildren, all of Sedalia.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the first Baptist Church in Warrensburg with Dr. W. Ross Edwards officiating.

Interment will be in the family plot at Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Lee Swope

Mrs. Mary Lee Swope, wife of Ervin V. Swope, 213 Loban, Warrensburg, died at 6:30 a. m. Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walker Myers, Warrensburg.

Mrs. Swope was born May 11, 1873 in Saline county, the daughter of Thomas Jefferson and Clementine Yokley Wilborn. She was married to Ervin V. Swope on March 21, 1894 at LaMonte and they celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary the 21st of last month.

Surviving besides her husband are: six children, Ervin L. Swope, Charles Everett Swope, George Swope, Mrs. Jess C. Fowler and Mrs. Walker Myers, all of Warrensburg, and Mrs. A. D. Wilborn of Ontario, Calif.; 20 grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren; and the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. Clara B. Swope, Warrensburg, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Miami, Okla., W. E. Wilborn Sedalia, Mrs. Joe Sewell, Eldorado Springs, E. C. Wilborn, Warrensburg, Mrs. Pearl Hollingsworth, San Diego, Calif., J. T. Wilborn, Windsor, and L. Wilborn, Iowa.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the first Baptist Church in Warrensburg with Dr. W. Ross Edwards officiating.

Interment will be in the Knob Noster Cemetery.

Mrs. Earl Hildebrand

Mrs. Bessie Hildebrand, route 5, south of Smithton, died at 10:20 p. m. Wednesday at the Bothwell Hospital following a long illness. She was the wife of Earl Hildebrand.

The body was taken to the Neumeier Funeral Home at Smithton to await arrival of relatives to complete funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Peter Hoffman Services

With the Rev. Glen Lindley and the Rev. R. C. Williamson officiating, funeral rites for Mrs. Sophia Mayer Hoffman, widow of Peter Hoffman, were held 2 p. m. Thursday at the Congregational Presbyterian Church, Sixth and Osage.

Mrs. Hoffman was a charter member of the First Congregational Church, which in later years was federated with the Central Presbyterian Church. She had been active in its activities up to the time failing health prevented her usual endeavors in its religious work.

Miss Mabel DeWitt was in charge of the music and was accompanist to Mrs. A. H. Bratten and Mrs. C. D. Demand who sang.

Probate Court

The will of Louis Bahrenburg, who died April 9, has been filed in the Pettis County Probate Court before Judge A. M. Harlan.

The will named his sister, Mrs. Amelia Bockelman, Cole Camp, the Evangelical and Reformed Synod of St. Louis, the Evangelical and Reformed Church of Sedalia, along with six nieces, six nephews, three nephews by marriage, one niece by marriage, and two great nephews as heirs to the estate.

The Evangelical and Reformed Synod of St. Louis is to receive 10 percent of the estate, while the remaining 90 percent of the estate is to be divided into nineteen shares. Eighteen of the shares are to go to the Evangelical and Reformed Church of Sedalia and nieces and nephews while the 19th share is to be divided between two great nephews.

The will named his nephew by marriage, W. C. Eitzach of Kansas City, and the Sedalia Bank and Trust Co., as executors under a $100,000 bond.

John T. Martin is the attorney for the estate.

Police Court

Ten overtime parking violators, who failed to appear in police court Thursday morning, forfeited their cash bonds of $1 each.

The Sedalia Police Department served as a go-between Wednesday afternoon for a lost boy and his mother. The child, Dicky Jacoby, 1719 South Stewart, was reported by a couple at 121 East 16th. They reported the fact to police at 4:38 p. m. His mother called the police station about ten minutes after the report.

John Custer, 334 North Summit, reported to the police the warehouse at his home had been broken into sometime in the past several months while he was in Florida. Thieves stole between 15 and 20 Roualt reels, 25 gun cigarette lighters, and a half gross of rings. Other articles in the building were damaged. Police are making an investigation.

THE STORY: Private Detective George Kendall, retained by the wealthy Albert Sutworth to track up his daughter's romance with Max Arno, also known as Chief Big Bear the wrestler, has been unsuccessful with Arno but has made some progress with Sutworth's daughter Marilyn, who seems to like George. Arno, who had a $100,000 offer of $100,000 to give up the girl, but Marilyn, believing that George is a writer who will give Arno publicity, takes George to meet Arno. There the big wrestler tells of his ring exploits, and when George is ready to leave, George suddenly finds himself whirled through space into some breakable pottery.

XVI
[T] is doubtful if George Kendall would have swung at the wrestler Max Arno, but George was full of fury as he rose and faced the man. Marilyn sprang forward and grabbed George's arm, possibly averting further bloodshed. "Max was only playing," she said. "Please don't be angry."

"Very playful, isn't he?" said George.

Max's bulging waist shook with laughter. "Are you all right?" he asked George. Marilyn brushed bits of broken pottery from his clothing.

Arno managed to tone his laughter down to a gurgle and finally to a stop. Still smiling, he said, "I didn't mean to hurt you, Mr. Kendall. Just wanted to show you that it pays to keep in shape. You ought to come down to my workout room sometime for a workout. It's for women, but there are times when I'm not holding classes and I can slip you in for a little exercise. You need it."

"Sometimes you play too rough, Max," Marilyn said, taking a protective hold on George's arm.

"Aw, he's all right. Anyway Kendall knows I was just kidding. Look, you folks run along and I'll meet you at the dance about 9 o'clock. And, honey," he said, when they were at the door, "if he gets fresh, don't forget what I taught you."

Arlington Asphalt Kings Tried To Buy Their Way Out of Jail

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — One of this column's first exposes of tax fraud four years ago was the story of two highway contractors, W. J. Hardy and F. McKendzie Davidson, who built the winding labyrinth of asphalt roads around the giant Pentagon building during the war and then sneaked out of paying taxes to Uncle Sam.

Following publication of their tax chiseling, the two gentlemen from Virginia went to jail—though not until after a suspiciously long delay.

A newspaperman always likes to believe that he's ahead of the news, that he's completely accurate and never omits anything important from a story. I am no exception. In this case, however, I find it necessary to confess that I did an incomplete job of reporting.

I thought I did justice to Hardy and Davidson but I didn't. One of the most important parts of the story was omitted. This was the manner in which the two asphalt kings scraped up $35,000 in cash to make pay-offs and buy their way out of a jail sentence.

The money was sealed in a brown manila envelope on Sept. 23, 1948, and delivered to their attorney, Howard Vesey. Of this amount, $10,000 was to be paid to the "Democratic campaign fund," and the $25,000 balance to a "Mr. X."

Telltale Letter
Davidson even wrote a letter about the pay-off plan. Dated April 29, 1949, and addressed to his attorneys, Davidson's letter bluntly spelled out the tax fix as follows:

When he employed the firm of Vesey, Prince, and Clineburg, we paid a $5,000 retainer fee and later, after several conferences at the suggestion of Vesey, we put up in cash $35,000 to be used as follows: Vesey was to donate $10,000 to the Democratic campaign fund and the balance, $25,000, was to be paid to a certain Mr. X at that time, and who later appears in the picture as a Mr. Shepard. It is, as when he succeeded in having our case killed as to criminal prosecution. No payment was to be made to anyone. Vesey included, until the case was definitely killed. This was very plainly set forth in the meetings and was distinctly understood by Shepard and all concerned, including Shepard.

That was the set-up by which the two road contractors planned to avoid serving jail sentences and the most interesting thing is who was to pull the tax wires and get the $35,000 pay-off.

This column, investigating further, found that members of Mr. Vesey's staff admitted receipt of the envelope containing the $35,000. However, they said the money was never listed by the firm as a legal fee.

Investigation also showed that the mysterious "Mr. X" or Mr. Shepard appears to be James J. Shepard, Jr., a tax attorney. He admitted that he had been consulted in the Hardy-Davidson case, but claimed that he participated in only one conference, decided they were guilty, and so advised them.

Kansas City Friend
Shepard vigorously denied any part in an attempted fix. Asked several times whether he had ever been offered $25,000 — as stated in Davidson's letter — he never answered. He claimed he got called into the case through a friend, Walter Maloney.

Maloney is a former Kansas City attorney who came to Washington shortly after Harry Truman became a senator from Missouri. He once served as judge of the Jackson county court, as did President the door of her apartment, George Kendall had to remind himself to breathe. He was spellbound. She was wearing a strapless, powder-blue evening gown and she had covered her shoulders with a contrasting dark blue nylon stole. Her hair was done up in a horse's tail and was tied with a matching ribbon. Even her glasses looked pretty.

"I can't believe it," he whispered, his knees weak. "All this in 30 minutes!"

"Like it?" She was wearing the same mischievous smile that had beguiled him that first day.

"You're a dream," he said. "Nobody could look that pretty and be real."

"That's sweet of you to say that, especially with these glasses."

"I like 'em," he said.

"Honest?"

She reached inside the door for her jacket. "I'm ready if you are."

GEORGE helped her on with her jacket and as she went down the walk ahead of him, he felt like a pauper. He'd only brought this one suit with him and it was beginning to show for the worse. He hoped she didn't mind.

In the next two hours, she took him to every scenic, or historic spot in Seneca Springs. He took pictures, jotted notes, but somewhere along the journey he began to feel a tinge of guilt.

It wasn't the breaking-up of the romance with Chief Big Bear that was bothering him; it was the deception. But this was no time to grow faint-hearted, he thought. He must keep remembering the bonus Mr. Sutworth had promised.

Then Marilyn's hair would brush against his cheek and she would laugh and crinkle her nose and all the guilt he had felt would return.

George was not without his conscience. He didn't want to make this young woman feel as if he were fond of her unless he were actually in love with her. But he seemed to be trying to do this very thing. And it wasn't hard to do at all. Could it be love?

He didn't try to answer that. (To Be Continued)

U. S. Agents Abroad — President Truman has approved plans for a vast expansion in our intelligence operations abroad. The National Security Council recommended this in order to make absolutely certain the United States is not caught asleep in another Pearl Harbor. Details can't be revealed, but thousands of intelligence experts will now be taken on by Gen. Benell Smith, head of Central Intelligence.

Retaliation on Indo-China — France's new prime minister, Antoine Pinay, has warned the Pentagon against resuming the war in Korea. Pinay, says French intelligence has reason to believe that the resumption of full-scale Korean war will be the signal for Chinese Communists to launch a gigantic invasion of Indo-China.

And Pinay is convinced that the French army there cannot hold out without help from American land, sea, and air forces.

Russ Threat to Japan — Inside reason why General Ridgway recently warned Japan of the possibility of a lightning Russian invasion from Siberia was an intelligence report that Deputy Russian Prime Minister Molotov had arrived at the big military base of Chita in Siberia. Molotov has been assigned the job of directing a huge Communist underground for the Far East which will have its headquarters in Tokyo. General Ridgway also had reports of Soviet troop movements across the Trans-Siberian railway, therefore decided to warn the Japanese of the dangers facing them now that they have a peace treaty.

New Tuition Plan Set
NEW YORK (AP) — Stevens Institute of Technology, Hoboken, N. J., has set up the Stevens Tuition and Scholarship Plan. It combines prepayments and insurance features, according to Lovejoy's College Guidance Digest.

Those with sons likely to be acceptable as Stevens freshmen make initial deposits of $100 and continue with monthly deposits to produce $3,662 by June 1 of the year the son expects to graduate. It covers tuition fees, books and supplies.

If the son does not go to Stevens, or funks out, the plan returns the full balance less a $5 service charge.

"Mother," said a young married woman to her mother, "I've lost our alarm clock—I have hunted and hunted and I just can't find it anywhere."

"Well that is strange, what do you suppose happened to it?" said the mother.

The girl just didn't know, but one thing she did know—the clock had disappeared and wasn't anywhere about her house at all.

Then the woman who does her laundry called her on the telephone.

Yep, that's right she had—just called to say that she found the clock in the laundry.

The young woman is still puzzling about how she ever could have put the clock in the laundry but that she did.

However, she feels a little better over it since she learned that another woman lost her kitten and after a fruitless search inside and outside of her home was notified that the cat was found in the laundry—she had just picked him up, nipped and all and stuffed him in the bag.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hicks and son John III of Sydney, Australia, arrived for a visit with his father John W. Hicks and his mother, Mrs. Fred Phipps and family. Accompanied by Miss Marian Phipps, they left for New York to spend about two weeks.

Mr. Hicks was general manager of the Famous Players Lasky Corporation in Australia.

The Sedalia Theatre Cardinal baseball club was formed with Glenn Carroll as manager of the team. Several games have been booked and play was to start as soon as weather conditions permitted.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frost Waddell and Mrs. Waddell's mother, Mrs. Mary S. Cotton arranged an automobile trip to several places of interest in Texas.

Dial System For Air Raid Warnings Set

NEW YORK (AP)—A dial-operated "bell and lights" air raid warning system by which the whole country could be alerted in two minutes was unveiled today to stockholders of American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Equipment for the automatic warning network was displayed in an exhibit set up for the annual meeting of the firm, (12:30 p. m. CST) parent company of the giant Bell System, world's largest corporate enterprise.

The improved warning system was developed by Bell to enable Civilian Defense authorities to flash instantaneous warnings to vital installations around key points.

Heart of the system is a special device, with a dial similar to that of a telephone, making it possible to dial any one of three different types of alerts.

If an attack was imminent, a Civilian Defense worker would spin the dial to "red." Immediately, bell signals for a "red" warning would sound in police, fire and other key installations, as well as hospitals and other points to be alerted. A red light also would be illuminated on the receiving device.

The Minister of International Trade and Industry has just issued a research report showing this 1949 movie production rating: United States, 439; India, 289; Japan, 156; Italy, 120; France, 110; Germany, 89 and the United Kingdom, 87. In 1951 Japan produced 208.

Girls Lured to China
SINGAPORE (AP)—Chinese schoolgirls lured by Communist propaganda, are continuing to leave their homes for Communist China. Six more girls are reported here to have left recently.

A Singapore government spokesman said the Secretariat for Chinese Affairs could take no action to intercept them, en route unless parents of the girls requested it.

What Do They Mean by "Public Ownership?"

There are some people advocating "public ownership" of the electric utility business. They say that the public should own the facilities that supply electricity.

Actually, all American businesses—including the electric, gas, and water utilities of Missouri—are publicly owned. They are owned by thousands of voluntary investors. Yes, the public in America owns everything in the country—including the government.

What these people are really talking about is compulsory ownership vs. voluntary ownership. When the government goes into business, the taxpayer becomes an owner whether he wants to or not.

Here's An Example of Compulsory Ownership.

The Rural Electrification Administration in Washington, working with the Southwestern Power Administration, is now promoting a plan of Super Co-ops for the purpose of spending millions of dollars—your tax dollars—to build generating and transmission facilities that are not needed. What's more, not a single additional farm will get electricity as a result of this wasteful expenditure.

Instead of unnecessary duplication of investor-owned facilities—that already are supplying the farmer electricity direct and through local R.E.A. farm cooperatives—this money would be better spent in building distribution lines that would bring electricity to additional Missouri farms.

There is plenty of low cost electric power available in Missouri now. No federal agency can provide better, more dependable electric service. There is no need for compulsory ownership directed by officials in Washington, who often show a greater interest in furthering their own economic and political philosophy than they do in bringing electricity to the farm.

Yanks Getting Along Well With French

ORLEANS, France (AP)—How are the thousands of soldiers in the growing American armed forces in France getting along with the French?

Surprisingly well, considering the thorns ever present in garrisoning a foreign army in a nation, even a friendly one, in peacetime.

In a recent 1,000-mile tour of 13 U. S. Army and Air Force bases in Central and Southeastern France, I talked with scores of American G. I.'s, officers and Frenchmen.

The bulk of the opinion lies between two extremes, illustrated by a general's glowing report of official co-operation and a private's report of being spit on.

Brig. Gen. Joseph H. Hicks of Lander, Wyo., commanding general of the big U. S. Air Force supply depot at Chateauroux sees the rosy side. He points out the French turned over the 15-million dollar La Martinerie Air Base, which forms part of the Chateauroux depot, to the U. S. rent free for only the 3½ million dollars it cost to move the French to other quarters.

He emphasized that the rent of $100,000 per year for the former nationalized aircraft factory buildings at Deols, the other part of the Chateauroux base, is about 25 cents a square foot, compared to $2 per square foot for similar space in the United States.

"Except for some Communist agitation, the people and the soldiers get along fine," the general said.

The other extreme of U. S. soldier opinion is expressed by Pfc. John F. Cahill, an air policeman from Dedham, Mass., stationed at the Chateauroux base.

"The people don't want us here," Cahill said. "They spit on us."

Cahill was on duty at the local railway station when a delegation of women Communists arrived for a convention.

"They did spit on me," Cahill repeated, steaming up just at the thought of it. "And the officers wouldn't let me do a thing about it."

Sgt. Clarence Powless of Salem, Ill., stationed at communications zone base headquarters at La Rochelle, summed up the bulk of opinion when he said the troops get along with the townspeople "pretty good, depending on the individuals."

Most of the French have a cautious middle-of-the-road attitude toward the return of the American forces. They sit tight.

No one, for instance, with whom I talked had seen a "welcome" sign.

The use of lignite, a low-grade coal, is increasing in the United States, with about three million tons now used annually.

Reds Press Again For Talks on PW Trade In Korea

MUNSAN (AP)—Communist true negotiators pressed again today for immediate resumption of the off-the-record talks on how to exchange prisoners of the Korean War.

The Reds made a similar suggestion Sunday. The U.N. Command has not replied.

The talks were recessed April 4 so both sides could explore separately possible ways to break the deadlock over prisoner exchange. The Communists want all prisoners returned. The Allies insist that no one should be repatriated against his will.

The new proposal to resume prisoner talks came during a 2½-minute session of the subcommittee on true supervision.

The meeting was far longer than the six previous subcommittee sessions, which lasted a total of only four minutes and 20 seconds.

No progress was made, however, toward breaking the twin deadlock over Red nomination of Soviet Russia as a neutral true inspector and an Allied demand for a ban on airfield construction during an armistice.

Some observers have predicted that the stalemate will continue until an agreement is reached on prisoner exchange.

New Yank Tank More Than Match for Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The tank the Army gambled on has proved it can climb better than a man without slippage, run under water, break most city speed limits, stop on a dime—and packs a terrific wallop.

Gen. J. Lawton Collins says the M-47 medium tank, now being mass produced, is "more than a match" for its Soviet counterparts.

The Army demonstrated the M-47 to newsmen at Aberdeen Proving Grounds in nearby Maryland yesterday.

Roaring Winds Stop Battles In No. Korea

SEOUL (AP)—Allied airmen tied down their planes today in the teeth of roaring winds sweeping down from North Korea.

Only a few weather reconnaissance planes flew.

On the ground, the Reds threw a series of light jets at Allied lines on the Western Front. All were hurled back.

The Navy said in Tokyo that the American destroyer-escort Silverstein recently escaped unharmed from "probably the heaviest attack of the Korean War against a United Nations warship."

Red shore batteries south of Hungnam on the East Coast fired 60 rounds at the Silverstein. Crewmen reported 45 splashes within 200 yards of the ship.

The Navy said, "Rapid and accurate changes in range and deflection indicated the Reds were using modern fire control equipment."

Allied warships pounded the North Korean East Coast Wednesday. Carrier-based planes hit Red positions southwest of Chinnampo on the west.

Despite bad flying weather, 10 B-29 Superforts attacked the battered rail bridge at Sinanju Tuesday night.

B-26 light bombers used radar in bombing rail yards near Sukchon. Other B-26 pilots reported 31 Red trucks destroyed on North Korean highways.

In a spectacular ground action Wednesday, about 20 Allied tanks raided Red lines near Kumsong on the Central Front.

A U. S. Eighth Army staff officer said 12 Reds were killed, 78 probably killed and 154 wounded. The tankers reported they shot up 85 bunkers, 39 buildings, 29 communication trenches, one artillery piece and eight machine-gun positions.

Two tanks were damaged.

Bob Elliott's Two Homers Push Irvin Blues Out of Polo Grounds

Cards and Browns
Remain Undefeated
To Lead Leagues

By JACK HAND
AP Sports Writer

Bob Elliott's crashing two-homer debut chased the Monte Irvin blues out of the Polo Grounds.

New York Giants fans, doubting the value of a 25-year-old Boston Brave "castoff," came to the Polo Grounds last night to be shown, And Mr. Elliott sure showed them.

When the Giants bought big Bob from the Braves April 8 for $50,000 and pitcher Sheldon Jones, Manager Leo Durocher shouted, "He'll be my crutch!" Now they know what he meant.

First a home run deep into the upper left field seats in the fourth inning. Then No. 2 into the right field seats in the eighth.

Just a few hours before Elliott ruined opening night for Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies, the doctors sewed together Monte Irvin's torn ligaments. They said the 1951 runs-batted-in champ might need to pinch hit in late July.

Elliott's performance, and this optimistic report, on Irvin restored some of the glow of the miracle of '51.

Elliott's home runs plus steady four-hit pitching by Sal Maglie made New York's first opening night a success with a 5-3 win over the Phillies.

Ironically, the Braves staggered through a rugged afternoon, absorbing a 14-8 pasting from the slugging Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Cards flattened Max Surkont in the first inning and kept it up all day for 20 hits, including five by Duke Snider and a homer, double and single by Roy Campanella.

Seven errors by a crumbling defense helped the Dodgers pour home the runs for an early 12-3 lead. Chris Van Cuyk wound up with the win, although he was lifted for a pinchhitter.

Stan Musial got hot with the bat to drive home three runs with a homer and double in the St. Louis Cardinals' second straight night victory over Pittsburgh, 6-5.

The Cards ripped Howie Pollet, an old friend and former teammate, for five runs after two were out in the seventh.

Cincinnati and Chicago had an open date in the National League.

Vic Raschi got the New York Yankees off winging in their drive toward a fourth straight pennant with an 8-1 romp over the Philadelphia A's. Big Vic needed help from Johnny Sain when he developed a wild streak and walked two straight in the ninth after pitching two-hit shutout ball for the first eight frames.

Cleveland and the surprising St. Louis Browns kept step in their two-way tie for the American League lead. The Indians nipped Chicago, 1-0, on rookie Jim Fridge's homer and Bob Lemon's three-hit pitching while Rogers Hornsby's Brownies clipped Detroit, 5-4.

Floyd Baker, supposed to be a "good field, no hit" man, won a game for Washington with a bases-loaded single off Boston's Ellis Kinder with two out in the 11th.

4-3. Irv Noren's double and two walks loaded them up. Julio Moreno went all the way for the Senators.

Ted Williams, who twisted his ankle while running out a triple yesterday, saw action only as a pinchhitter for Ted Lepcio in the seventh.

The Indians continued to get super pitching with Lemon doing the job but had to depend on a rookie from Dallas to do the hitting.

Fridley's second-inning homer ruined Joe Dobson's four-hit job.

Horses, Named for White House Hopefuls, Run Today

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—I Like Ike will be running on the inside rail in the presidential sweepstakes at Laurel today but it's anybody's guess who'll win the quarter-mile sprint.

Post positions for the sweepstakes in which horses will run for a "primary" or "gallop poll" conducted this past week. The public could vote for their favorite by making a contribution to the Cerebral Palsy Fund.

Gen. MacArthur, a late scratch at his own request just before the votes were counted, was replaced by Gov. McKeldin of Maryland, also a Republican, and expected to be the state's favorite son candidate at the GOP national convention.

Despite his late entry, McKeldin polled 156 votes for position No. 7. I like Ike polled 1,541 votes for the inside position. Next to him will be Taft, 1,436; Truman's Choice 918; Kefauver, 876; Dark Horse 518; Russell, 211; and McKeldin Stassen, 107, will be in the No. 8 spot with Kerr, 72, No. 9 and Warren, 54, on the outside.

Two others, Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois and Vice President Albin Barkley, were not entered but received write-in votes of 66 and 26 respectively.

Running the short course will be stable ponies, used to lead thoroughbreds. Regular jockeys will be in the saddles.

The stunt, to help the United Cerebral Palsy Fund, will be sandwiched between the regular fifth and sixth races. Fans can root all they want but betting will not be allowed. Part of the day's receipts will go to the fund.

'Sugar Ray' Kayos 'Rocky' In 3 Rounds

CHICAGO (AP)—Middleweight Champion Sugar Ray Robinson, 32, but still a ring killer with a quick and paralyzing punch, is ready for a shot at his third world title after a third-round knockout of challenger Rocky Graziano.

Robinson's execution last night of the former 160-pound champion before a capacity Chicago Stadium crowd of 22,264 apparently was a stepping stone to a June New York showdown with Champion Joey Maxim for the light-heavy crown.

Sugar Ray confessed he went "head-hunting" early to pulverize Graziano in a brief but blistering bout which paid $82,208 to Robinson and $68,507 to Graziano.

Robinson weighed 157 1/2. "Ah figured that against a fighter like Rocky, you got to get him quick to keep him from hurting rocky," said Robinson. "You try with a slugger like him and later when you clout him, he thinks it's accidental. So I sailed into him on every opening."

It was a miscalculation that dropped the curtains on eager, wild-swinging Graziano.

"See, I bounced off the ropes in clouted Robinson good with a right and down he goes," said Graziano in his dressing room. Robinson went down for no-count midway in the third round.

"So a little later, he drives me to the ropes with a left to the body and I figure to bounce off again and give it to him good, but

Banquet Marks Penney Co's. Fiftieth Year

In observance of the 50th anniversary of the J. C. Penney Company, a banquet was given Wednesday night at the Sedalia Country Club with employees, their husbands and wives as guests. This also observed the 25th anniversary of the local store at its present location, although the J. C. Penney company has had a store in Sedalia 32 years.

Serving as toastmaster for the occasion was Raymond Marcks, who introduced a male quartet, composed of Charlie Maggard, Dean Binderup, Ad Taylor and Al Domingue, which sang several numbers.

Special guests at the dinner were introduced: Mayor and Mrs. Herb E. Studer, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. George Scruton, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Sparr, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haynes and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Chipman.

A feature of the entertainment was a comedy number, "Piney and Elvirey at the Station," presented by Mrs. Garnett Bulkey and Miss Anna Mae Huffman, assisted by Miss Esther Meisenheimer, Kay Romig and Miss Lydia Wagner.

The faithful work of several employees, who have been with the company for a long period of years, was acknowledged. They are Mrs. Ethel Eirls, 13 years; Mrs. Thelma Butcher, wife of Lawrence Butcher, 15 years; Mrs. Edna Brown, wife of George Brown, 20 years; Miss Lydia Wagner, 23 years; Mrs. Frances Mehl, 28 years and Mrs. Mary Jens, 30 years.

A short talk was made by Paul Hedderich, manager, who told the employees how much he appreciated them.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. Butcher, who was given a lamp, and Mrs. Marie Spendiff, whose gift was a set of dishes.

The tables were centered with arrangements of yellow snapdragons, lilies and iris with yellow foliage. Back of the head table was a curtain of posters commemorating the 50th anniversary of the company.

Favors of two pair of nylon hose for the ladies and ties for the men were at each place. The gifts were wrapped in gold and white paper and on each was a gilded 50 cent piece.

The banquet was attended by 60 persons.

When ice melts the resulting water occupied less space than the ice.

Mo. Legislature Quits After 16 Months and $630 Millions Spent

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. — Missouri's legislature folded its wings—a little moth eaten by now—and flapped away last night.

Way back in January, 1951, it started out with a blaze of color. Flowers on the rostrum, crowds in the gallery and all of that.

Last night it quit work, for all practical purposes, in the dull thud of anti-climax. It just petered out.

Actual adjournment of the long session won't come until April 30. Until then only technical sessions will be held to complete clerical work.

Record Appropriation

The real finish came when the Senate finally passed the big catch all appropriation bill which had delayed adjournment for a month. It raised total appropriations to a record of more than $630,000,000.

A month ago, on March 17, the House and Senate got into a tangle over how much extra state aid should be granted to the public schools.

The House voted $14,000,000. The Senate cut it to $5,000,000. And a conference committee agreed $7,000,000 would be enough in addition to the $90,000,000 or so that was appropriated in earlier bills.

There they stuck in a deadlock that was unprecedented for length in recent years.

Finally the House gave in and accepted the $7,000,000 figure on Tuesday. That paved the way for adjournment and the Senate followed through in routine fashion yesterday.

Fund for Medic School

Besides the disputed school aid allotment, the catchall fund bill carries $6,000,000 to start a four-year state medical school and more than a million for state hospitals and institutions claiming they're broke. Altogether it totals over $20,000,000.

The House had hoped the Senate also would pass a bill setting aside $40 a mile in state aid to maintain low-type rural school bus, mail and milk routes. Counties get $750 a mile of state aid to build them, matching it on a dollar for dollar basis.

But the Senate balked at spending general revenue money to maintain county roads. It turned the bill down, 16-11, two votes short of the 18 needed.

Money For Rural Roads

So counties will continue to get $750 of state money a mile to build rural roads, but none for maintenance.

Sen. Edgar J. Keating (D) of

Kansas City said it was just a ace of the counties wanting the state to pay local costs they ought to pay themselves.

Sen. R. Jasper Smith (R) of Springfield said if the legislature approved the principle of state aid for maintaining local roads "we'd be launching ourselves on a brand new program without any idea of what it's going to cost. It takes the lid off completely."

Some of the Senate opposition was based on the fact the legislature already had approved a ten-year, $557,000,000 highway improvement program, financed by increasing the gasoline tax from two to three cents and increasing bus and truck fees.

A little earlier, both House and Senate had passed and sent to the governor a bill to transfer $3,500,000 from the postwar reserve to the county air road fund.

$5 Million In Postwar Fund

Sen. John W. Noble (D) of Kennett said that would leave a balance of around $5,000,000 in the fund when the next biennium starts July 1, 1953.

On another last day action the Senate approved a bill to boost the chief engineer of the highway department from $10,000 to $12,000 and take the ceilings off the salaries of department engineers and employees.

It started out as a plan by Sen. William M. Quinn (D) of Maywood to increase the membership of the highway commission from four to eight. Then it shrank to six members and that's the way the Senate passed it.

When it got to the House, the representatives knocked out any increase in commission membership and left it merely as a bill to remove the salary ceilings.

Quinn told the Senate he didn't like the changes but he'd rather have that than nothing. Once before he got a ten-member highway commission bill through the legislature but it was vetoed by former Gov. Phil M. Donnelly.

the legislature passed measures to legalize operation of a Jefferson Barracks housing project by St. Louis county.

Transfer $20,000,000 from general revenue to the postwar reserve.

Set up a 12-member bipartisan commission, six from each house, to study the need of toll turnpikes in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Arkansas.

Set up a five-man Senate committee to decide how the Marshall and Carrollton school for feeble minded should be expanded—especially whether it should take over the old Confederate Soldiers' Home at Higginsville.

Among the casualties in the final rush was a bill to allot $2,250,000 to the governor for flood relief in towns and counties. The House advanced it to the voting stage but abandoned it when the "Let's Go Home" pressure piled up.

Leaders said it could be considered again at technical sessions next Wednesday, but they don't expect it.

Jailed Because He Challenged Three to a Duel

PONTIAC, Mich. — Amateur actor Carl O'Brien, in jail for challenging three ex-associates to a duel, says now, "I've been too dramatic."

The 22-yr.-old unemployed shoe salesman was kicked out a theatrical group two months ago for "hamming up rehearsals."

Brooding, O'Brien decided he had been "unforgivably insulted." He wrote a letter challenging William Fogle, Milton Stephenson and Harold Person, leaders of the Pontiac Master Players, to "meet me in honorable combat so that my honor may be cleansed."

He suggested as weapons "sabers or knives, your choice; pistols if you are prepared to furnish them. I do not intend to murder you, only to maim or cripple."

But his three intended targets declined the challenge and looked up the law. That's why O'Brien unable to furnish $10,000 bond at his arraignment yesterday, is awaiting examination April 22. He is charged with violating an 1816 statute against "challenging to fight a duel."

The law hasn't been invoked in

In a recent ballot by mail, Rotary Clubs of this district nominated Dr. M. S. Harvey of St. Joseph, to succeed Mr. Hall as governor of this Rotary district. He will take office as governor on July 1, and will be the official representative of Rotary International, the world-wide organization of all Rotary Clubs, in the 1944 district. Although nomination by the district is equivalent to election, the new governor will be formally elected along with more than 200 district governors from all parts of the world, at Rotary International's 1952 convention in Mexico City, Mexico, May 25-29.

Profits Down, But Business Sees Good Year

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—These are the days stockholders flock to annual meetings eager to find out one thing: "What's the prospect for earnings this year — and dividends?"

Top company brass is telling them as best it can. At most meetings this week the report has been that profits are down — with unkind words being said about "Oil Debit Taxes." But a large number of the executives are forecasting a satisfactory year ahead. And some back their confidence in the future by announcing expansion plans.

Stockholders of the giant American Telephone & Telegraph Co. meet today. Earnings are running about level with last year, President Cleo F. Craig says and adds cheerily: "Throughout the country there is a continuing strong demand for telephone service."

More than 2,000 shareholders of General Electric hear from President Ralph J. Cordiner that both sales and earnings are down — and taxes cost the company $1,000 every 78 seconds. But GE is upping by 200 million dollars the amount it plans to spend on a 4-year expansion program, now set at $500,000,000.

Sales of Union Carbide & Carbon set a first quarter record and Morse G. Dier, executive vice president, tells stockholders: "We anticipate that total sales for the year will exceed sales in 1951, unless we have a further decline in general business." Profits are down, however—taxes, again.

Two rubber companies tell varying stories. B. F. Goodrich sales are running 12 per cent below a year ago. John L. Collier, chairman and president reports. Part of this was because of a strike at Akron. But he thinks the industry as a whole will have another high volume year.

U. S. Rubber sales are up about four per cent. Chairman H. E. Humphreys Jr., tells stockholders, but net income is off 30 per cent — higher costs and higher taxes.

Many textile stockholders fear to hear the worst at first quarter meetings this year, but President C. F. H. Johnson tells Botany Mills shareholders that sales are now running ahead of last year, although profits are unsatisfactory.

Alexander Smith, rug maker, has "very good" prospects for earnings this year, President F. C. Elving says, believing the worst is over.

Chairman Louis S. Cates tells Phelps Dodge shareholders that profits are off in the first quarter but he hopes to "show good earnings for the year." And the company plans more production, further expansion.

American Locomotive sales and earnings are up (there was a strike last year), and first quarter profits this year set a record, says D. W. Fraser, chairman and president.

Despite "burdensome taxation," Sun Oil profits should be about level with last year, Chairman Joseph N. Pew Jr., says. The company is spending 110 million dollars this year on expansion.

Sales up, profits down — that's the story for Diamond Alkali. Earnings up a little for McCall magazine publishers, President Marvin Pierce reports.

Earnings outlook favorable, President H. E. Widdell tells stockholders of Arthur G. McKee Co., construction engineers.

Although proportions vary from place to place, and period to period, records indicate that human twins are produced about once in 100 births, triplets once in 10,000 and quadruplets once in a million.

Hal Boyle Is Ill—

Little Woman Watches 'Name' Band, Hubby Sees Gal Soloist

By CHARLES E. LYONS

NEW YORK (AP)—When a guy takes his little woman stepping to the music of a big-name band, she may look for the "name" but he's a sure bet to get round-eyed over the girl vocalist.

This entirely natural phenomena is reason enough for a great percentage of the music boys to see to it that a bosomy, blonde little thing sits at the end of the front row of bandmen.

Her main function seems to be toe-tapping the beat, bobbing the head in a somewhat rhythmic pattern and throwing a smile at the boys occasionally. And a couple of times during the evening the bandstand beauty gets up and demonstrates a certain talent for vocalizing to boot.

But Freddy Martin at the Hotel Roosevelt is one baton maestro who has reached the top without feeding his customers this formula. From his bandstand Martin peddles sweet music with artistic arrangements. In front of the band is Freddy and his sax—but no sex. "Too many headaches," is the way Freddy explains it. "When I was first starting, my friends in the business advised me to steer clear of girl singers and so far I've been doing all right."

But he knows some of the troubles that make other band leaders reach for the aspirin. "Sometimes when a band is playing a night club, a customer will wobble up and try to date the vocalist," he said. "This can get complicated, especially if the vocalist goes with someone in the band."

Bill Hitz, one of Martin's sax men, says that intra-band romance can often spoil the close harmony. He cites the case of one luscious warbler—everytime she smiled at the customers her musician boyfriend frowned. Some singers have three or four bandmen frowning at the same time.

Frankie Carle had a pretty good idea for controlling that situation. He had his own daughter do the singing in his band.

A series of one-night stands with long jumps in between, is tough on the men, let alone a lady singer, says Martin. She also has to have special hotel accommodations. And as you'd expect, a girl has about three times as much luggage as male tooters what with prettifying paraphernalia and a bunch of evening gowns to be lugged around.

The more talent and the more beauty that goes with the vocalist, the harder it is to keep her in the organization. The mortality rate via matrimony is high. Either that or they leave to solo on their own. "But generally girl singers don't last too long," said Freddy. "Men are the big money-makers. Girls like Doris Day, Ginny Sims, Dorothy Lamour, Kay Starr, Peggy Lee and Lena Horne—all of whom got started with a band—are unusual exceptions."

But to get back to the psychology of the thing, Martin claims it's really the little woman who calls the tune anyway. And she'd much rather not give hubby the chance to ogle a curvy velvet-throated thrush. How can she have a good time with all that competition?

Butter, Lamb Prices Jump; Some Items Cut

By The Associated Press

Butter and lamb prices moved a little higher in the majority of retail food stores this week. But most spring vegetables were cheaper and many stores were reported planning to mark down prices of popular beef cuts and frying chickens as week-end specials.

Flood men said the widespread floods in the Midwest so far had not disrupted the normal distribution pattern of supplies outside the flood zone, except possibly to stimulate some precautionary buying of eggs.

They said an anticipated decline in egg prices after Easter had been nipped in the bud by this psychological effect of the floods, plus an announcement that the government will offer to buy a substantial amount of eggs for the school lunch program. Small rises in egg prices are reported in scattered sections.

Some brands of margarine and shortening were reduced 1 cent a pound by manufacturers as raw materials costs continued to decline. Many retailers adjusted their prices immediately. Some salad and cooking oils eased 2 cents a pint.

Beef rib roasts and both sirloin and porterhouse steaks were reduced this week in many markets to attract customers. In some big chains the price cuts amounted to as much as 16 cents a pound on the better steaks.

Several pork items were lower earlier this week but worked upward later. However, picnic hams, pork roasts, and bacon were still high on the good-buys lists of many markets. Frying chickens and fowl also were being widely featured for this weekend.

Pork Dishes May Be Disappearing From Cafe Menus

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pork dishes such as ham, pork chops, roasts and sausages may disappear from restaurant menus this summer.

Farm leaders say disappointingly low prices of hogs could bring such a development.

These farm leaders also contend that recent action of the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) setting new ceilings for public eating places may have the effect of ruling pork off menus.

The OPS order fixed menu prices prevailing the week of Feb. 5-6 as the highest restaurants may charge. At that time, and for several weeks since then, hog prices have been low from the standpoint of production costs. They have been about 80 per cent of parity because of a heavy marketing volume.

Parity, a standard for measuring farm prices, is declared by law to be equally fair to farmers and those who buy their products. But hog prices and pork too—usually advance during early summer and remain at higher levels until late fall. This price change reflects the fact that hog sales usually decline during the summer.

Should pork prices go up very much, many restaurants would be caught in a squeeze between fixed ceilings on their meal prices and higher costs.

Farm leaders say hog raisers would suffer because many restaurants would quit buying pork.

Withdrawal of restaurants from the market could have the effect of keeping hog prices from advancing to more favorable levels.

The normal human spine has 33 or 34 vertebrae of which 9 or 10 are fused into two bones, the sacrum and coccyx.

Watching Steel Dispute Like Keeping An Eye On Jugglers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Watching the steel dispute is like looking at a juggler who is keeping three Indian clubs in the air at the same time.

1. Negotiations between the steel industry and the CIO United Steelworkers. They broke down last night, having arrived nowhere. Now the problem is to start them again.

2. Will the government, which has seized the plants, raise the workers' wages? Secretary of Commerce Sawyer said last night he's considering the problem.

3. The legal fight and the criticism poured on the President for ordering the seizure in the first place.

The first two can be watched day-by-day but the legal side gets more involved and hazy as time goes on. This will tackle the legal side.

In the past dozen years the President—Roosevelt and then Truman—seized a number of plants or industries, probably more than 60.

They acted under an emergency proclamation issued by President Roosevelt before we got into the war or under the Smith-Connally Act passed by Congress in 1943.

That act gave the President power to seize a plant if he thought a work-stoppage there threatened the war effort.

And the Supreme Court never ruled that the President didn't have the power to seize, under the emergency proclamation or the Smith-Connally Act.

But that act expired in 1947. Now we are theoretically at peace, although engaged in a big defense program.

Some of those presidential seizures in the past received sharp criticism, fierce protests.

But the reaction to them was gentle compared with the outcry last week when a steel strike threatened and Truman seized the industry.

Truman didn't say he was acting under any particular law. He said he was acting under his constitutional powers as president and commander-in-chief.

His reason for the seizure: that he was acting for the national welfare because a steel strike would damage rearmament badly.

Critics and the steel industry jumped him. They said no law, and no part of the Constitution specifically gave him power to seize private property in peacetime.

Sen. Bridges, New Hampshire Republican, spoke for a lot of Truman's critics when he raised this question:

"If the President can seize the steel mills, can he also seize the cattle on American farms to provide a steady flow of meat into homes? Can he seize any and all private property for any purpose whatsoever?"

A fellow-Republican, Sen. Morse of Oregon, cracked back that Truman would have been "derelict" in his duty if he hadn't seized the mills.

And Truman's government lawyers said: The critics didn't go far enough, that the Constitution-makers never intended to say the President couldn't do anything that wasn't spelled out ABC in the Constitution.

The lawyers argue that the President—by the very fact that he's President and responsible for the national welfare—has many broad powers not specifically stated in the Constitution that can be used when emergency arises.

Although hydrogen is a small fraction of one per cent of air at sea level, about 95 per cent of the air 100 miles above sea level is hydrogen.

It is believed that gunpowders made by the ancient Chinese were incendiary but not explosive and by Roger Bacon about 1248 A.D. that true gunpowder was invented.

Alaska Couple Shows Movies Of Old Mexico for Ionians

By Mrs. Homer Howe

IONIA—Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer entertained the Ionia community at the Ionia Community Hall Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer, whose home is in Anchorage, Alaska, are visiting with Mrs. Dwyer's parents, Mr. and G. B. Brown. Recently they returned from a two months tour of Old Mexico. The entertainment Friday evening consisted of pictures, both slides and movies, in color which Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer had taken on their trip. The pictures showed many historical and scenic places in Mexico, including a bull fight. Mr. Dwyer's explanation of the picture was very instructive and interesting. Refreshments were served.

The women of the Ionia community have organized an extension club with Mrs. Clarence Friedly as president. Meetings will be held on the fourth Wednesday of each month. At the next meeting, Mrs. Elmer Gardner and Mrs. J. D. Friedly will be hostesses and the meeting will be held at the Community Hall. The project will be slip covers and drapes. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. Every one interested is urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith have named their daughter Denise. The baby was born at the Windsor Community Hospital April 3. The condition of Mrs. Florence

Twins of the same sex are far more common than those of opposite sex.

Many animals can be classified as having either exterior or interior skeletons; the lower invertebrates being those which have exterior skeletons.

Twenty-five per cent of all funds contributed to the Cancer Crusade is devoted to research, the American Cancer Society says.

Which One Has "That Look"?

Monthly "Nerves" Are Easy To See

You, too, may not be able to hide that tired, nervous, jittery look each month no matter how much "make-up" you use. Keep your secret safe during "those" days—don't be the one girl in three who shows the strain from tail-tale nerves and cramps—has "that look."

Take Cardui, a special medicine trusted by thousands of women, girls to help insure against "nerves" and other signs of monthly misery. A little Cardui each day helps build strength so resistance may be greater each month, nervousness and suffering less and less. Look more natural—feel and sleep better. Ask your dealer for Cardui.

Many scientists estimate that at some time during life 1 out of every 4 women suffer from monthly discomfort.
